17th December 1953] [Sri A. Appu]

he does not say how he is going to absorb all of them. I undertand that the Andhra Government refused to take on non-Andhras to their State. On the other hand, I understand that a large number of Andhra officers have been retained here. I think that at least some of those officers could have been absorbed by the Andhra State, but that has not been done. As a result, there is a large number of surplus staff in the residuary State and if so, the prospects of officers in the districts are not bright. I hope the Government will find their way to give relief to these officers. Thank you, Sir."

DEPUTY SPEAKER :—" The House will now adjourn and meet again at 11 a.m. tomorrow."

The House then adjourned.
